What's New? by Paul Glidewell

'New' has been on my mind lately. It seems there is a lot of 'new' surrounding the GIG agency. For instance:

My sister and brother-in-law recently got a new car and I asked them if I could sit in it just to enjoy the new smell (is there any better smell in the whole world?). And as you can see, they also are expecting a new baby any day now!

New also has been on my mind because I live on a small farm and this time of year we have the new lambs bouncing and playing, and we just got some new ducks

Sometimes 'new' is a result of 'old' ©. My Mom, the matriarch of GIG, just last week became a 'new' Medicare Supplement Client

This newsletter introduces more new betterments here at GIG too...as you review them, consider what's new in your life. Can we partner with you to ensure your life's assets are properly protected?

What's New In Manhattan?

Manhattan residents take pride in both their community and their families. In their commitment to both of these, the GIG office in Manhattan has made improvements.

1. Tom and Kristen have added Worker's Compensation to their portfolio.
2. To give Tom and Kristen the opportunity to be out in the community more, Manhattan's office hours are 8:00 to 12:00 each day for walk-in business.
